“ Alfred was the type of person who would do anything for anyone that needed it. I had the fortune to work with him directly at Newark and even afterwards he would always send messages of support and fun throughout the year. A loyal and kind soul that will be sorely missed.

Alfred was a gentle giant with a heart as big as he was. To his family he was Pete which he hated. He would tap me on the head and say I have a name it's Alfred not Pete. But to me and many others he will always be our little Pete. He will be missed dearly and to know him was to love him. I know our Grandma Nancy was waiting to wrap her loving arms around him along with many others. Rest In Peace my cousin.
