“ Dear Gina, Matt, Jon , Mary Beth and Dave's whole family...

As I type this note, I realize you are at Holy Trinity right at this moment, celebrating the life of Dave. I learned of Dave's death just this morning from my sister in Middletown, and I am deeply saddened.

Gina, my family lived on Kensington Street, right across from The Dumfords. I recall Dave's parents very well and you Matt, Jon and Mary Beth. I extend to each of you my deepest sympathy. I trust that your faith assures you that Dave is "alive and well" in the Kingdom of our Loving God and that one day you will see him again. But, regardless of how strong our faith is, when we are bereft of the earthly presence of one we love, there is much grief.

Be assured of my prayers for each of you today and the days ahead as your mourn Dave's loss.

I wish each of you peace.

Sincerely,

Brother Mark (Terry) Ligett, OFM

“ Dear Gina,
Know that I am saddened to learn of your husband's untimely death. As a survivor of ovarian cancer myself (1990), I feel a special connection with those who experience cancer. I know Dave must have been a very special man from what was said in his write-up. Know that I will keep you and all your family members and friends in a special place in my thoughts and prayers, especially as he is laid to rest. I have no doubt that he now rests in the loving embrace of the One who made him. I feel very fortunate that our lives' paths crossed at Mount Notre Dame. May the passage of time help to heal some of the hurt. Fill the holes in your heart with loving memories. We do take consolation in the fact that some day we ALL will be reunited in the great Communion of Saints! Blessings always, Gina.
With love and the promise of many prayers, Kathleen Hipskind Maier
