ENRIGHT, Gladys, born May 16, 1934, in Powell County, Kentucky as Zelma Gladys Morgan, died of pneumonia on Tuesday, March 1, 2022 at Atrium Medical Center, Middletown, Ohio. Her passing is mourned by her two daughters, Barbara (Tom) Rolls and Kathy (Kirk) Bogard. She was Grandma and “Gma” to her two grandsons who were the light of her life: Jarrod Kirk Bogard of Rowlett, Texas and Cody Garrett (Alyssa) Bogard of Sulphur Springs, Texas. She leaves behind one sister, Bessie L. (David) Wiles of Bowling Green, Kentucky and several nieces and nephews. Upon her graduation, her family moved to Middletown where she spent most of her life. After being a factory worker for thirty plus years, she retired from Schneider Electric. While still working, she studied for and received her beautician’s license and operated her own beauty salon in Middletown. Because of her love for crafts, she later converted her salon into a craft shop. She was a member of the Women of the Moose 183. Upon retirement, she moved to Gainesville, Florida where she obtained her CNA license and worked as a healthcare worker for individuals and nursing homes. She attended Trinity Baptist Church of Lake Butler, Florida where her son-in-law Kirk pastored; and she received Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. After living fourteen years in Florida, she returned to Middletown, Ohio. Gladys followed the Lord in believer’s baptism and became a member of Grace Baptist Church where Max Fernandez is Pastor. Gladys was known for her excellent work ethic, her kindness and love to others, and her love for candy. She loved her church family at Grace Baptist, and they in turn showered her with love and affection and her favorite sweets. Please join us as we celebrate her homegoing. “ I grew up on Washington Street in Campton, Kentucky. The Morgan's lived down the street in the home which later became Porter's Funeral Home. My parents were Rex and Bertie Center. I think on of the Morgan girls was my babysitter at one time. Jean Hatton also lived across the street and she was about the same age as the Morgan girls. Rosemary Center
