“ I will always love and cherish my uncle Bill and aunt Peggy. I have so many precious memories him. I remember him and my father Ivan playing music together he sure could pick that guitar while my dad played the banjo & they both sang. He loved to dance and I loved to dance with him to Country & Bluegrass Music. Uncle Bill love to joke around. He was a hard worker and love his wife and kids with all his heart. Gone but, never forgotten always in my heart and memories.

“ The Handy household will always be my home in my heart. They brought me in and showed me love in my darkest hour. I love everyone in their family. Always kind and caring. Bill dancing his hillbilly jig for us and Peggy and him always joking with each other, just brought so much laughter and good times. I miss those days I have spent in their family. They never made me feel out of place or unloved. Bill you will be greatly missed by many! R.I.P.
