“ I came into Brett's family two years ago,he welcomed me into his home and life. He was always very sweet to me. I am very sad to see him go..he was good to his grandson (my son) and cherished him so much. I hate that he won't remember him or get to know his grand daughter..but I am pleased to have spenttwo years with him an his wife . Rip Brett, we miss you.

“ I grew up with Brett and his family just down the street when we were very young. He was my Best Friend, my confidant and my hero. If I ever needed a thing or anybody messed with me in Kindergarten. He was there for me. We went to kindergarten together and had the same home room. So we got to play together from birth to kindergarten, before school and at either of our homes. He was a sweet young man growing up and the Sweetest of people when we're adults. There will never be a man to replace the love we shared as cousins. You have gained your wings my sweet cousin Brett. Now fly, fly away to Heaven Cousin. You deserve it. You WILL definitely be missed by me and in my heart forever. You will live on in my heart and my memories. Good bye for now Brett, until I'm called home to sit at the foot of God. That's when we will meet again. My ever lasting love, Brett you will live on in my heart, my mind and my soul.
I shall miss you forever! (please say hi to Tim and Steve) and all our family that have gone before us.
Forever your loving Cousin,
Julie ❤️
