“ Happy Birthday! I miss you more and more each day. I would give anything to see your smiling face and hear you laugh just one more time. You meant so much more to you than you ever knew. Wish I would have made the time to show you just how much. I love you Aunt Katy.

A family member - October 16, 2015 at 09:07 AM

“ Not a day goes by that I don't miss you. The world really is a darker place without you in it. I really do hope there is a place where I will get to see you again. I love you Aunt Katy....

“ *To the Family of Catherine Elizabeth Ingram,
So sorry to learn about the loss of your Dear Loved One, Catherine. Please know that so many people share your grief with you to help you through this difficult time of sorrow. Please accept my deepest condolences as we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all of those who have fallen asleep in death; including your Beloved, "Cathy". (John 11:41-44)*

J. Moore - July 27, 2015 at 02:29 PM

“ From the Ingram family, our thought and prayers are with all of Katy's family. We share the sorrow and sadness of you loss. We remember Katy for the good person that she was, the smiles and laughter that we shared and her caring for others and mainly for her love for family. May you rest in peace and God bless your soul.

Katy grew up down the street on Kiester Road from me. I am glad I re-connected again with Katy on Facebook after many years past high school. My prayers are with Sonny, Terri and Janice. I know she will be missed by all of her loved ones and those of us who knew her.
