“ Rest In Peace...remembering lots of fun times when we're were kids. Y'all made sure to show us "sheltered" cousins how to have fun! Misty, I hope you and yours embrace the good memories of Chris' life.

“ Misty and family: I am sorry for your loss. I remember that Chris tried to help others when he could. He helped Larry David physically all his life to do things he wasn't able to do on his own. I hope to see him again in the resurrection that the Bible promises so he can see what the real life is like. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I will always love you, Daddy. I will never forget the many times you told me that you never knew what love really was until I was born. Never will you be forgotten, and you will forever be in my heart. I have learned so much from you; a part of me is who I am because of you. One day we will all be together, but until then I will miss you more than words can say.
