“ I used to work with her at kohls and she would come in the mornings and 3 other people sat we us and we would talk and she would make us laugh till we cried, we always took our break together,she was a hard worker, she knew her job and sometime she got to be boss in what they call the jewelry cage, she always put lotion on her hands and face and then rubbed it in her hair and put her hair back into a pony tail, she was always funny and nice, i am so sorry for the families loss,prayers for all her family god be with you
