“ I have known Christie since I was 7 years old. She helped raised me. All it took was for her to get up the courage to ask my mom if I could stay the night with Courtney, then I never went back home. She made me feel like I was at home. I was her adopted daughter. She was everything of a mom, & best friend to me. Somebody I could always go to. My heart is in so many pieces. Words can't express the hurt & anger i have right now. I never got to say goodbye. I never got my last hug, my last "I love you". & now the only thing left is your memory. Courtney & Cassie, I love you so much. & I will always be here for you. You are my family, always have been & always will be.

“ When Christie was very young I use to baby sit her for my brother and her mother when they worked. As she got older we would laugh about it, she would tell me she thought I was the meanest Aunt she had because I make her help me pick up her toys and eat at the table. Now she will be with her mother once more and at peace. Your Grandparents
Albert and Margaret Fugate will be there to welcome you home. I will miss you very much. You will always be in my heart. My Thoughts and Prayers are with Family.

“ I am going to miss you so much! I can't believe that you're gone, me being one of your Aunt's we shared lots of times together when we were younger, you were like the little sister that I never had and you always made sure that people knew that you were a year younger than me, what I wouldn't give to hear you say that one more time... You go fly high girl... Love you so much!!!
