“ I grew up just 4 houses down from the Stampers and I always considered myself the 5th son of the Stamper family. Allen was truly the neighborhood Dad and he always took time and was truly interested in us as kids. He was one of the funniest guys and he is one of the most caring Men I have ever know. I would say apart from my own father I respected him the most as a true father figure. I feel a deep sadness in my heart with him being gone and I've got nothing but love for his 3 boys....Dannie, Greg, and James and I believe he is with his wife Wilma and his son Tim in a better place.

His boys and I are left with so many memories of one of the greatest Men that there ever was and I look forward to sharing these memories every time I see one of them.

“ Neighbors in Trenton from 1962-1968, the Stampers had 3 boys, and we, the Sibcy's had 3 giirls . All of us were close to the same age. Lots of drama 🙋♀️🙋♂️ between us kids. But, we have always loved and cherished those memories. We stayed as close as possible through all these years after we moved to Kentucky in late 60's. They are etched in my soul and heart. ❤️
