“ I rember when he was a little boy living on Pauline Dr in west Middletown. My daughter Nikki was the same age and he was one of the first little boys that she ment that she wasn't related to she developed little crush on him and would always say how cute he was they were about four years old maybe five at the time and I would walk over and say hi to Connie and Dave and we would let them play with each other when school started she wanted to get on the bus with him and when I moved out cause I got married she cried cause she didn't think she would get to play with him anymore even though my parents still lived there they stayed friends every since then .he had such a bright smile when he would look u in the eyes it would melt ur heart. I rember that when they were kids he loved playing outside with his toys to would see him laughing and having fun. I also rember how proud Dave and Connie were of him the proverbial apple of their eye, and I rember when my dad had passed I ran into him and was shocked to find he rembered him so fondly and when he apologized for my loss it was a sincerely heart felt one that really touched me. I am so very sorry to hear that he is not with us any more.
