Amy and family, I am truly sorry for the loss of your Mother, Mother-in-law, Grandma and Great Grandma. Even though I didn't know your Mom, Amy, the wonderful person you are today is a huge testament to the woman who is your mother. May she rest in peace.

“ Diana was such a special lady and a dear friend. I always treasured our times together. She was one of the best cooks and you always felt welcome at her home and at her table. I will miss her a lot. I remember all the fun times we had. We used to enjoy doing crafts together and just spending time talking. She always was there to listen or to give you good advice. I can not say enough good things about her because she was that special of a person. So caring with lots of love for everyone. I know she loved her family and they meant the world to her. I'm really going to miss our talks and just spending time with her.
My sympathy goes out to all the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ You will be missed. You had a wonderful ability to gather all us strays (animals and humans alike) and make all feel loved and cared for like they were the only one. You taught compassion, love and strength to everyone lucky enough to cross your path. My babies will miss their Miss Diane, and I will miss my sounding board on how not to be a stepmom but simply mom. I know your arms are big enough to hold Dave and all your babies and ease their grief through your love and their cherished memories. Good bye my friend.

“ The first time i met Diana was in Dave's office in Postown,I knew Dave for years but never had met her.My niece Tracy introduced me to her telling me she was like her second mom.boy did she get that right.So i go to Diana;s to see Tracy and Diana had this big breakfast made.like ol timie people use to do.and it wasn't Sunday either.and so i waited till they ate and looked around her house.oh it was full of Christmas stuff.she told me she did it because Dave's Birthday was Christmas so she kept the things up all year.Diana made a big impression on me and i loved her from that day on.it was just like being in a loving home and she made you feel like you was always welcome.She sure Raised a loving family.and a good woman she was.She will truely be missed.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Wooldridge family during this sorrowful time, especially for Dave. She was an awesome woman, she was always nice to me and we always talked to each other at the family birthday parties, and she was a wonderful cook. My grandchildren, Keegan, Jami, Nadia and David always talked of their Mammy and her good food. Diana is no longer in pain and is now with Jesus, He knew she was getting tired. Heaven gained a beautiful Angel. May the Lord bring peace to the family. RIP Diana, you will definitely be missed by a lot of people.
