Dianne, we have been friends so long that no matter the distance, time it had been, we were always able to pick back up on our talks we were having and not miss a beat. So many good memories, fun, being in church together, singing together, and then of course that infectious laugh. I can't even pick just one. I can not fathom the reunion that's taking place in heaven. Most of all just to see Jesus and know you have made it in to that beautiful place. Your home was around the bend. Dianne, you will b missed by so many here and now we will keep our eyes on Jesus, to b sure to make it in too. Forever Loved and Missed. Your friends. The Perry's!
