“ I just heard of Doug's passing and it kind of hit hard. Doug was a great customer of mine for many years and always a real down to Earth guy. I'm sure he is truly missed by the one's who loved him most. May he rest in eternal peace.

“ Dougie and I worked together for about ten years and retired together in 2009. We became good friends very quickly and were best buds for many years. He was just a good guy and one of those people you enjoyed being around. Since retirement we stayed in touch regularly, sometimes just on the phone and sometimes we'd meet for breakfast at Bob Evans in Middletown. After covid hit those breakfasts became fewer but I always tried to call and of course the conversation would always end talking about meeting again for breakfast. About six weeks ago Linda was going to be away from the house for a while and Doug invited me to spend the day senior sitting. We spent the day talking a lot but not really saying much, with the conversation drifting from one subject to another; family, friends, sometimes work or where the best cherry pie was. I don't know if having Linda away that day was the Good Lord at work so a couple of old friends could have a nice long visit, but given the situation, I have to wonder. Rest in peace Dougie, you will be missed but our friendship will always bring me a smile.

“ Every visit from Doug at the farm was always fun filled. He came out during many summers when I was a teenager. Doug had such a dry sense of humor and always made us laugh. And brought out great fireworks. I'm glad he was my cousin and I have wonderful memories of him Karla
