“ I am so sorry for your loss. I just found out about LaVerne's death over the holidays and I am sad that it has already been almost a year since she passed. Living in Toledo puts me out of the loop on a lot of things.

LaVerne was a wonderful friend to my grandmother when they were both residents at the Inn in Middletown. My grandmother loved her very much as I did too.

*Blessings to you.

“ Dear Badonna, Reegan, Ruth, and All of Laverne's Family Members--My love, prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to you. Laverne meant the world to me, and when I grow up, I want to be just like her. While I will miss her terribly, I am so glad that she is Home in Heaven now and is seeing Jesus face to face...no more heartaches here on earth and no more physical suffering. She loves and cherishes all of you, and I know that you will make her proud as you carry on her legacy of faith for God's glory. God bless and comfort each of you! Love, prayers and sympathy, Scott Mishler (chaplain at Bickford) along with wife Lisa, daughter Jayna, and son Benjamin

“ Well, I can just see her dancing. That is the image I have and I love it. My love to Badonna and all of you. I know she was ready and I pray she is with Jim, my Mom, everybody she loved that preceded her. The Hall girls of Middletown, so beautiful and so diverse. They were each in their way a force to be reckoned with. God bless you Aunt Laverne. May you be in peace. Lovely photo.
