“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing your loved one personally. I saw this obituary in the paper. I am well acquainted with the sorrow death brings and hoped the family might be comforted by these encouraging words from the bible: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither outcry nor pain be any more, the former things have passed away.” (Re. 21: 4, 5) You have my deepest condolences.

“ My beautiful nephew. You are the most powerful young man I have even known. Your smile: melts hearts. Your positive attitude: so inspirational. The love you shared: filled our lives. You are ABSOLUTELY the biggest influence in my life. You always showed courage and compassion to everyone. My precious boy; I miss you terribly. It is a honor to be your Aunt; that my love will never change. My life is richer because you were in it. I will miss our daily phone calls and your smile . Your legacy will live on thru your Mom and Dad and your boys. You taught them to be strong young men. Never afraid to show their feelings and love. Family was the most important thing to you; everything else came second. Your gentleness and the love you shared for your Mom & Dad; made me so proud of you my nephew. "Courage is being scared to death, but saddling up anyway" That is you, you never backed down from a challenge. You learned to walk against all odds. You never gave up. And I will never give up on you. You ran a great Race; Fight a great Battle and YOU WON THE WAR. You are cradled in our Heavenly Father's arms; surrounded by Mommy, Daddy, Henry Cooper, and all our loved ones who have gone before us. I know one day; we will all be together again: such a day of Rejoicing. Know this honey, you are and always will be loved and missed now and forever..

I love you dearly,
Aunt Judy & Uncle Kenny
