“ Gayle was the best coworker and confidant a person could want. She let me drive her muscle car to the store to get her Pepsi, which always lightened my load for the day. She didn't have a selfish or mean bone in her body, and I counted her among my dearest friends. I will miss her laugh and company, but know that she's at peace with Allen somewhere beautiful. Her memory is a blessing to all who knew her.

“ Gayle and I are cousins and when we were children she would come stay for a couple of weeks every summer. When we was around 8 or 9 years old and during one of her visits we was headed up stairs to my bedroom to play when a bat swooped down at us Gayle ran into the bathroom and locked the door. When I tried to open it she said no because the bat would get her. When I told her that it kept coming down at me she finally open the door. We laughted a lot about it as we grew older. I love you Gayle please rest In Peace.
