“ We got so many memories I can't say them all! You took me and my family in your heart as we was family. I am so glad we took the pictures we took over the last 15 20 years! I looked up to you as A father! You was always there for me and I am so happy I was able to be there for u when u needed me no matter what it was we had each other. I made you A promise that was to never lose my house I will never lose this house. You helped me get my credit up to buy this house. I hope you watch over me as your my angel! I love you and miss you so much!

Love your best friend
