I find myself hurrying back from places to get back to mom. Then it hits me mom's in heaven, God's taking care of her now. I miss her so much. I'll be strong just like she expected. Love you mom.

“ I love you so much mommy! I don't know how I'm gonna go on without you here with me. I miss you and love you more than anything! I would have given anything to take your place. I would have taken your pain myself so everyone that loves you could still have you here. Please come to me like you said you would and watch over all of us. I just don't know how I'm gonna get through this. You were my rock, my hero and my very best friend. I could tell you anything. So many times since you left, I have started to call you. God, I can't do This, I wanted to go with you. I know your pain free and happy and you o my stayed as long as you could for us. Dad got the best birthday this year, he got you. Kiss and hug dad and mammaw for me and i love and miss them so much too. Rest in Heaven my beautiful, precious mommy. I
