“ Diane and family,

I didn't realize that Grant had passed until this morning. I always thought that he was such a great guy, since I was a teenager. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you, Angela Garrison.

“ Grant had become a special person to us in the time we were able to get to know him. He and Diane we always such fun to be with. They were so hospitable when we came to visit. The Caudill family reunion here in Blackey, KY will never be the same. We look forward to another reunion soon! We love you all and continue to hold you in our prayers!
