“ Baby, I wanna say that you will always be my love, my heart, my world, my whole everything. I still love you as much as I did the first day we met. I told you this time and time again and I meant every single word of it. I don't know where I'm going on life, or what I'm doing. I just hope that you understand I'm trying to go on with life, it doesn't mean that I love and care about you any less because I love you just as much. I'm going to go forward and see where it leads. I need this for me. I will always want you and need you. Please keep watching over me. I miss you more than you will ever know. Love Kay.

“ Babe, I miss you so much. You are all I think about day and night. Soon as my eyes open you are on my mind. I need you, I wish You was here beside me holding my hand and cuddling. I miss everything about you. The way you smile, and act goofy. All the good days we had. When you would win on a ticket you would come open my door and kiss me, The look on your face, the look in your eyes and that smile. Even the not so good days, really were. I'm so lost without you babe, so lost. You was everything to me. My love, my heart, my soul, my world. You will always have my heart, and you will always be my everything. I will always forever hear your voice in my head, you singing to me and you telling me you love me. Baby, I love you and will cherish our every moment we ever had together. Continue to watch over me my love. Until we meet again. Rest baby❤️

“ When I came home from California for good, you and my mom were inseparable. All the other guys were absolutely no good for her and none of them ever wanted her to share her life with me, let alone get to know me themselves. But then there was you. You were so respectful and you and my dad always got along for every event I have had. You absolutely adored my daughter “miss Gracie may” you would call her... I will never forget that about you, the fact that you could respect another human being for just being human regardless of their faults. I loved that about you. When we bought this new house, you came over and painted Gracies room. Now I’m not sure I’ll ever have it in me to paint over it. I am so sorry that you had to leave us all so soon, because I know that your heart was always in the right place. If you taught me anything and I remember anything from your life, it’ll be the kindness you always had for me and my family. The love you had for my mom. And the respect you always had for everyone. I hope that the rest of us can always remember that.

Give my brother a big hug up there and tell him all about how I’ve missed him. Watch over my mama and our sweet “Gracie May” for me. So much love Peanut. I’m so sad your gone.

“ Peanut there's so much I wanna say. I think back when when we were in Elementary school together. Many moons ago. I can hear you talking an cutting up in class like it was yesturday. Going to church with your Mom an some of you kids. Then years later you an Kay get together. I know you were a good hearted person. An we've talked. An you told me things. An i told you it would be ok. Dont worry what people say or do. Just make you guys a good life. I wish things would have turned out differently. But God had different plans. I hope you are watching all of us. Especially my sister. She loves you very much. I pray everyone finds peace. An god gives all the strength they need to get through this. You will forever be missed. Who am i gonna tell calm down now ? Rest in peace. Brenda Risner O'Dell

“ I miss you baby, only God and you know how much, I love you and wish you would come walking through the door to get me. We had something special for each other,where anyone seen you I was there,and vise versa. When you left you took my whole heart with you,it's ok though because it belonged to you anyways.we had an unbreakable bond. You were for sure one of a kind,your smile,the sparkle in your eyes,your laugh,baby I loved everything about you.you leave behind a great legacy,because you were all about family,and loved our babies.you worked so hard and enjoyed what you did everyday.you always said you did not want to go on with life if something happened to me,and here I am alone without you,baby, I don't want to do this without you,we had great plans for our future, and now God had better plans for you.I hope your up there in heaven doing everything you ever wanted to do here on Earth,you can go to Florida now baby,everywhere we had planned on going you can do now. I want you to know that I will love you for the rest of my days here on Earth and will be with you again someday. Please watch over me.. watch over our kids, and JQ.
