“ He Was Such A Nice Man. I Worked At Sunoco In Farmersville And He Used To Come In There A lot Before And After "Coon Hunting" I Was Pregnant 2x When Working There And He Gave Me A $2 Dollar Bill For Each Of My Children. They Are Still In Their Baby Books. He Would Talk And Talk I Loved His Stories. What A Kind Soul.

“ Floyd was my best friend when I was a little girl. I remember sleeping in the living room on Friday night because he would be there in the morning with a basket full of candy and gold dollars. We would wittle sticks qnd throw the baseball back in forth. He was truly one of the greatest men I have ever known and will be greatly missed.

“ Knew Floyd since I was very little. He was the closest person I ever had to a living grandfather. I'll miss him very much and I can't wait to see him again someday. He inspired me in many ways and I will always cherish all the memories of him being goofy in McDonald's and coon hunting with him and my dad. He was to me the grandfather I never had. I know he is in a better place!
