

JAMES LLOYD SLOAN

January 2, 1934 - December 29, 2020

SLOAN, James Lloyd, age 86, was “promoted to heaven” on Tuesday, December 2020 at his residence. He was born January 2, 1934 in Marengo, Indiana, the first born of Lloyd and Gladys (Thompson) Sloan. James graduated from Graceland College and served in the U. S. Army from 1956 to 1958 in Germany and used this adventure to see many of the sights in Europe. He had resided in Middletown for 10 years. He was a very successful businessman and was a talented writer for his friends and family’s enjoyment. He was a man of faith, kind and generous with a wonderful sense of humor! James was a fan of the Indiana Hoosiers, Kansas City Chiefs and the Cincinnati Reds. Preceding him in death were his parents; and one son, Scott Sloan. His survivors include the “love of his life” Carol (thank you for 10 wonderful years); his sons, Greg (Jan) Sloan, Brad Sloan, Clark Sloan and Doug Sloan (he was so proud of them); and several grandchildren and great grandchildren; his sister, Anita Gay and brother, Ron (Pat); and many more precious friends and family. A Private Service will be held, followed by interment with Military Honors at Woodside Cemetery. Dearest James, I wish you could have written this—it would have been a creative work of art! Love you so much! Arrangements by Herr-Riggs Funeral Home, 210 S. Main St., Middletown. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.herr-riggs.com

Tribute Wall

“ JAMES LLOYD SLOAN

September 13, 2022 at 09:07 PM

“ Carol, Our sincere sympathy goes to you for your loss. James was a good man and will be sadly missed by all. Love you. Jimmy & Pat

Patricia ELEANOR DRURY - January 02, 2021 at 07:52 PM