“ My precious, precious brother, We knew our time was short together. That's why we ended EVERY phone call with "talk to you later.....hopefully" I feel like a large part of my being is gone. Our family history and many memories that you & I shared. Even after coming to California for a short time many years ago, you just wanted to go home. That's all you ever wanted, Ohio, mom & Carl. You took such good care of mom before she passed. Carl and Kim took just as good care of you. I know you gave your heart to Jesus many years ago. I know you are with Jesus now. Will you wait for me? I hope to be close behind you. Only I know how you struggled your whole life. How you suffered mentally and physically this past year. Now you are at PERFECT peace. I am happy for you. I consider it to be a "home going."

I remember my younger cousin Jerry as a cute little guy. Smart too. He could read all the words on cereal boxes at an early age. He was a devoted caregiver for his mother. Sorry we did not live closer. May he rest in peace. ❤️
