“ Jody and I grew up together and were best friends. My heart is so broken. If I wasn't at her house she was at mine. We got our first apartment together, We got our first new cars at the same time. She got a plum colored Corvair and I got a red one. We even both got our jobs at Champion Paper together..We were good kids but things we used to get into makes our family laugh now but not so much our parents then. I just want her children and family to know it was an honor to be her friend and be considered part of your family. May your memories be a comfort in the days and weeks ahead. God Bless You.
