John grew up in Middletown, Ohio and was a mill worker for Armco Steel/AK Steel and mechanic for several Chrysler and Ford dealers throughout his career. He moved in his early 30's to Florida with his wife, where he built his life. John was an avid fisherman and NASCAR fan. John was a loyal friend to many and a devoted family man. He spent many days boating and fishing in the Florida lakes and especially enjoyed time that his sister, Ruby, and mother spent in Florida with him. John was preceded in death by his late wife of 58 years, Betty (Gibbs) Blevins; brothers, Paul Blevins, Omer Blevins, his twin brother, Jim Blevins; and sisters, Marie Fox and Ruby Cline. John also leaves behind many close friends who were family to him in Florida's Lakeside Village. The family would like to thank Dale, Nancy and Karen for the love they showed to John for many years.
