“ I am so sorry to hear that Kay passed to the Lord, our loss, God gained a new choir member who can really sing. I enjoyed so much the chats on the phone. We have not chatted as much in recent years, but I was always glad to hear from her. I could always count on her to have the family history at her finger tips. And her laugh was always welcomed. I remember her and her camera documenting all the family parties and get togethers. When I was a lot younger, I always counted on her advanced wisdom and understanding of the world. I will truly miss her.

“ Kay had a beautiful voice and loved to sing for the Lord. She also loved history, and would talk about the most recent book she was reading.
