“ Kelsi, thank you for blessing us all with your sweet soul. Thank you for being not only an amazing cousin, but my best friend as well. You gave me so many wonderful memories to cherish for the rest of my life. We had so many great times together, we loved going on vacations growing up and were inseparable. We loved going to the lake and going out on the boat and driving the golf cart around.. you wrecked it every time you drove and they gave you the nickname "Crash".. we had so much fun.. no matter what we did, even if it was just walking around Walmart or driving around town with no destination in mind.. I love you and miss you already more than you'll ever know. Please watch over us all, we're all having a hard time right now. Here's a picture of us in Florida when we went to Disney, I will cherish these memories forever.
