“ My heart was saddened for a moment when I first read the text of my friend Kim. She was such an encourager throughout all the time I knew her. But then I quickly remembered that she not gone but on heavenly assignments now. Jesus is coming soon and we'll be meeting up again. Kim was a fireball and was always laughing. I remember when we sang together with the Rhema Bible Church choir. We had the best time lifting our praises up to the Lord and many laughs too! She is an amazing person, quite unique. I'm thankful for the posts with pictures showing off her million dollar smile. I am certain that she is smiling really big now that she is seeing Jesus face to face.

My prayers and condolences go out to Stephen, her family and friends.

So long for now my friend and I will see you again.

*Love you,
Edna*

Kim you will be so missed. You were my light in a lighthouse. Sure a great mother and grandmother. You me and Tina were the 3 amigos. I love the memories that we made you me Tina and Brenda for the horse races...the beautiful hats. R.I.P. my sweet girl. Life isn't going to be the same without you. Sing your heavenly songs now (what a beautiful voice you had). I love you so much....so honored to have known you.
