“ Lenora shared a church service with us mid-September. We appreciated the time we shared. When asked that day if she wanted Pastor Anderson to pray with her....she replied..."No, I am very much ok"....with the Lord was her reference. We are saddened to hear of her passing but we know that Heaven is a place nearby, so there's no need to say goodbye.

Hold tight to memories for comfort, lean on your friends and God for strength....

Lenora was my older sister, so I have many memories of her. We both had some hard times in our lives; but we shared some good times too. At times, we disagreed as sisters sometimes do. However, throughout our lives we always remained nearby. We always loved each other and wanted happiness for the other. That never changed and never will.
Rest peacefully Lenora.
