Luther was a great man in many ways. He was fun to be with, always friendly and kind to me and my family. I admired him and greatly respected his opinions. I enjoyed his stories of life growing up, and in the CCCs and his adventures in the Navy . He was a wonderful uncle and friend. He loved family, and more importantly, he loved the Lord. I know that someday we will see him again , but until then, we will really miss him. We love you Luthet.
