“ My deepest condolences for Michael's friends and family.

I had the pleasure of working with him for the past year. He had a contagious spirit. When he was happy, he made us happy. Anything he did was top notch. Mike never failed to make our day, even if it was by scaring us!

Every day he was there, I was relieved knowing that my day was going to be pretty good, and I let him know that.

I'm gonna miss his smile, laugh, dry sense of humor, and his tendency to gross me out with his "chiropractic" popping. He left an amazing impression on us all. I just hope he knows how much we all appreciate him.

Rest in Heaven, Mikey.

“ Last night I was told you had left us. I was speechless. A blanket of sadness and darkness came over me, two emotions I never imagined would be associated with you Michael. No one could ever be down around you. Your smile and laughter lifted all our spirits everyday. I will always remember the night of the snow angels and snowball fight in Kroger parking lot. I will miss you more than words can say. May God be with your family and friends during this heartbreaking time. May your soul be at peace fly high my forever snow angel.

“ Michael, brother, why? I know that’s always the first question we ask when something traumatic happens, but honestly, what else can we ask? Your relentless energy whenever you came to work bought out the best in not only myself, but those around you as well. You have no idea how happy I’d get when I would walk into work and see you standing there with the most bored face in the history of human existence. When I found out the news yesterday, Mike, I was crushed. No tears, just anger, silence, confusion. We were the “Bag-Vengers” Mike, and now Iron-Bag is without Baggin’ America. Save a seat for me up there bro. I love you 3,000. This is not the end of your journey, for new life has just begun. Rest easy, solider.

Godspeed ⚡.

“ One of the best people I knew so funny so giving and one of a kind in this life that we live.i worked with Michael on a daily basis and it seems that if I was even feeling a little down he would ask me if I was ok and maybe make a funny joke or prank me and make my day that much easier and I wish that I could have had the chance to ask him if he was ok and did he wanna talk about it.to his parents and his girlfriend Ashley my prayers are with you in your loss of awesome man.i love you Michael and until we meet again I will never forget you brother.....sincerely Patrick Matthews.

“ Michael was my best friend brother. I remember one time him and I were playing outside baseball, and I told him if he hit a home run, I'd buy him a snickers. The very next pitch, he hit the ball over the fence. The went on to be a joke for about 10 years. I will miss him.
