“ My memories are many and great! When Nick (Nicky) and I was little, we played all the time! Nick and I would play with our matchbox cars in the dirt, roll down the hill, play in the leaves, catch lightning bugs, dig for crawdads in the ditch, and play with our cats Tiger (mine) and Lieutenant (Nicks). Nicks cat loved to bring us gifts and lay them on our front porch, unfortunately, the gifts came as alive 🐛 😞! Nick and I were good at banding together. No one was allowed to be mean to my little brother (except me of course)! One time we had a big box and Nick got inside of the box and I was the person that supplied the air holes. Again, he was INSIDE, the box! I would knock on the box and he would tell me that it was ok to put holes in that spot. After several SUCCESSFUL air hole areas were made, we messed up! I knocked, he said it was ok and I started punching holes. BTW, I was using a large screwdriver to punch the holes! Anyways, he was in one of the spots and I gorged the top of his head, he screamed, and I started crying because I thought I had killed him. Didn't really even bleed much! I was also responsible for breaking one of his toes. We were fighting and I slammed a door in his face, unfortunately, his foot was in the way! Can't you tell I was the best big sister ever?! Believe it or not, we laughed about those times all the time! Last thing that I want to share is when me and Nick would get in trouble and a whipping was forthcoming, we would run and hide under our bed (which was on hardwood floors, slippery!) and mom would run from side to side trying to catch us. All we did was grab the springs under the bed and slide from side to side, making sure we were both out of her reach. The best part, we laughed and laughed and the madder mom got, the more we laughed! She would eventually give up and tell us she was going to tell our dad. Well, this was a win for us, because she never told! Nick was a great brother and wonderful uncle! He would come to all the kids sporting events! I will miss Nick more than he could have ever imagined. I know God has taken him and will give him happiness, health, and everlasting love! Nick, be by the gates when it's my turn so we can meet again! I wish I could turn back the clock, but I can't. I know God's plans are greater than anything that could have happened on earth! Nick I love you, and I miss you so much.

My heart is broken! We will be together again in the great streets of Heaven.
