“ I remember all the p work days at Monroe Elementary and Jr. Senior High together. We celebrated dressing up for the students at all the holidays. We went out to eat for co-workers birthdays. I had the pleasure helping make table arrangements for dear friendwith our families. About love and enjoymentLori and Jack's wedding. So much fun at Cowan lake.The Christmas parade in Lebanon. Sometimes hanging out at my home and Pam's playing board games. Invitations to watch Bubba and bands play music at various locations. Hunter pizza,Murphy Theatre. In all of that, Pam ALWAYS made me feel special. She was an inspiration to me, About love and enjoyment with our families.A very longtime dear friend that i have loved for quite awhile. I will miss you. I already do. Theresa Fiscus

“ Pam was like a sister to me. She's the most gentle, loving, compassionate, kind hearted person I've ever known. Always ready to give you a hug, to comfort you, to show her love for you. The world is now a lesser place with her gone. Will miss her forever. May God bless the Davis family and may He give you comfort and healing. We thank God that pam is now with him and her suffering is over.

“ Pam had such a beautiful spirit. She was so sweet and kind to all. She loved the children at Monroe and they loved her. I worked with Pam as a sub at Monroe and often would sub for her on her job. The children would look at me as if to say.....why are you here today, where is Pam?

Just a few weeks ago she facebook messaged me about praying for my aunt who was ill and little did I know how ill she was. She always thought of others before herself.

It saddens me for her family now, as she loved her family so much especially her grandchildren. She talked of them often and how she wanted the best for them, her eyes would sparkle when she talked of her grandchildren. May God bring comfort to her husband, daughters, grandchildren and all family and friends. My deepest sympathy to all. God Bless.
