“ Paul Griffin was our friend and neighbor, fellow Christian worker at Calvary Baptist where he was dedicated to the RA program and activities with kids for many years.
He made a difference and many memories for those young lives.

“ Your dad was a great person Randy and Cathy. Great memories of him when I was young. He was my scout leader in Troop 99. We had great times camping. Our parents always got together and played cards all night. I still have pictures of them all at the kitchen table. May he RIP.
