“ paula was my sister in law of 42 years. We knew from the first time we saw her that she was the one for Keith. She had the right amount of love and caring to make him a wonderful wife. The right amount of spunk to keep him in line, too. Over the years we became best buddies. Talking daily about the family, what was for dinner, keith's latest escapade. Just life in general. I will miss her every day of the rest of my life. She was my best buddie.

“ Paula was my sister-in -law but we wereey loved her,too. Grandma played really sisters. We talked almost every day.Family activities, what was for dinner, Keith's latest escapade, the birds we had seen that day. If I didn't talk to her for a couple of days, I had to call for my "Paula fix". The day my Father died I remember her in the kitchen making a pot of beef stew for us. She was always doing for others. She and my husband Tom had a special relationship. They each thought the world of the other. Paula always made special treats for him and he was always looking for stuff to fix around her house. She was so generous with her time and energy. She so loved her grandsons! They were her world. Grandma played video games, played outside with them, she and Keith took them fishing with little baby cane poles when they were barely walking. They helped hunt night crawlers at dusk with flashlights and a bucket. I will miss her every day of the rest of my life. she was my sister.

“ Paula was a very sweet, caring lady. She loved my son, and for that I am forever grateful.

While on a family vacation in Myrtle Beach one year, we spent an afternoon under a palm tree just chatting and laughing while the rest of the family was off on an adventure. We shared stories and some quiet time enjoying the beach. She made her famous taco soup for the whole clan, as we all crowded together in her hotel room. I am blessed to have known her , she will be greatly missed.

Vicki, she really did love Tim! From the very beginning he had her love. But then, it was that way for all of us.
