“ To say anything at all this woman...was tiny but she was mighty ...she walked with pride and her love for her children grandchildren nieces. nephews was an example that we all must look up to. This tiny lady had more class in her pinky a heart as big as all the water in the sky....May the ones that are struggling with their lives, with their walk with God. In the tiny spot in this big world look at this tiny soul with such a big human heart as big as any mountain. A tiny human again that took on so much ....she us with her precious son again, her parents Ruby and Harlan. God saw she was weary, God saw the tears of Sue and Larry...always there for her aways as Sue my favorite sister in law in this whole world. I love you! God. Her son Shane.. Ruby abd Harlan were calling her home to them....tears will fall for years of times when Rhonda Sue came with open arms to help to comfort yo hold to fuse ti chase to cry....now is her time to rest to watch from above to guide you Jads... she will guide cry todsy cry your heart out she will drip you signs from time to time... you got your Aunt Sue abd Uncle ....and your mom...hang tight to those memories of the lady that more strength then most...she loved you BIG!
