“ *I always heard of Bob Spurlock when i was in high school(Madison).
And i met Missy years later. I knew her daughter and son for they were friends of my children. I have always heard good things of Bob and his family. I kniw of his granddaughter who is a great achiever.
This man holds a good family and his love for them was very strong.
Gonna miss you Bob. You rest in peace Spurlock. I know you will be watching over your family from above. And us down here is watching out for them too. Fly high with the angels and rest in Gods hands. You will be missed.- Corinna S. Burton & Family*

“ Such a tragic loss. Bob fought through so many difficulties over the years that it seemed like nothing was too formidable for him to overcome. Deepest sympathies to you, Missy and Bobby and Maddy. Marcia and I pray that fond memories will provide you some solace as you mourn his loss. May God give you peace and wisdom as you navigate the next part of your journey.

“ Big Bob has been a big part of my life since I was 14. He was everyone's dad. He was the man! I definitely got closer to him over the last year. I admired him for everything he had been thru and came out on top. I love you Bob! Rest in paradise! Hug Robyn and Aaron for me I know they saw you first 🥰🥹

“ Bob was a very unique man. He and I had many a conversation about the world today and he shared a few stories about his time in the military. I will never forget the day we gave him a handmade comforter of the American flag to put on his bed. When I went over and laid it in his lap, he had tears on his cheek and said it was the best gift he had ever gotten. RIP, Bob.
