“ Hey brother. Just wanted you to know that I will always be in your debt for carrying me around and making sure I did everything you did when the polio had a hold on me. You will always be my older brother by one minute. It won't be long before we will meet up again in heaven and drive the single women crazy. My heart is hurting so bad. We had a bond that was unbreakable and we always will. Wait on me. I'm coming. Love
❤️ you and miss you so much ❤️

“ My heart goes out to Roger's family! I didn't have an opportunity to physically meet him, but we talked on the phone a few times. I hope you all take comfort in knowing there's people who's lives he had improved by being an organ donor. There are people still walking around because of his bravery in being an organ donor. My son has been blessed by 2 different people who were brave as Roger. My heart and prayers go out to each of you. I know it's a tough time, I think Roger would be proud to know his family and friends have honored him!
