(Scott) Sheets; seven grandchildren, Stephanie Cook, Michael (Courtney) Cook, Geoffrey (Lisa) Warren, Jeremy Warren, Simone Warren, Ryan Sheets and Rachel Sheets; five great grandchildren, London, Legend, Memphis, Mekhi and Daren; and several nieces, nephews and cousins. “ *Debbie,
I've gone down a bit of a rabbit hole today and happened upon your father's obituary. My sincere belated condolences to you and your family.
You may not remember me, but I lived next door to the Currents, a few houses down from you. I was the little blonde headed kid that went by Charlie at the time. We played some over at the Chapmans' house.
Your father was so very kind to a , probably a little annoying, kid. I remember him sitting in your driveway in a lawn chair, building models airplanes. I would always stop and chat with him and watch.
Best wishes,
Charles Blanton*

“ We've been sharing so many memories lately and now we lose another great one. At 64, it seems lifetimes ago when I was a kid at Uncle George and Aunt Iva's house, when Roger would come with his beautiful, young bride. I recall he was always "up", happy, jovial... one of my favorite cousins. We can all cherish those memories. Allow the recollection of those moments to soften your loss... Darrell House

“ Susan, Debbie and Bobby,
I dont know where all the years go-seems like yesterday I was roller skating down the street to your house! Your mom and dad both always took me in with open arms! I will always treasure all those years playing at your house and have countless memories I will always treasure of all the family christmas parties and July 4th family reunions at Smith Park. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time of loss, I love you all!

The neighborhood was full of life back then and it seems we'd all be around forever. Those guys (Big and Lil Jim, Shack) all full of life and so fun to be around!

“ Sure will miss the talk's we shared when Roger was out for a walk. Lot of memories shared about the service. He was a very proud of his family and his Marine Corps son. God rest your soul.
