“ *Jimmy, Gary and all the family,
We are so sorry for your loss of Ronnie. I was on line looking for someone else and saw the passing of Ronnie. I will be thinking of you with love and prayers. When Ronnie named his daughter Rhonda Michelle Riddell I thought that was the most beautiful name it sounded like a movie star name (hope I spelled Michelle correct). I loved your Dad, he was at our wedding. He came up to us and said if you ever need anything call old Ernie. I have so many good memories, Jimmy remember the big snows we used to have, Mommy would call your Mom and say no school Jimmy will spend the night with us. What fun we would have Mommy making candy, Peanut dancing with a mop in the basement to music. Mommy loved all you boys she had as much fun as we did. We had so much good clean fun, no drinking and heavens no drugs. I can remember Mommy and Flo making those yeast rolls and donuts the would kitchen smell wonderful, sure would love to have one of those donuts now. Good old days for sure!
I know you will miss Ronnie as Linda and I have missed Wanda so much. Gary and Jimmy we would love to see or hear from you. Linda and her Gary live in Lexington now, Aubrey and I are still in Lexington.
With Much Love*
