“ Rosie was such a sweet aunt. Always kind, generous and had a contagious laugh. She loved her family, especially her kids, grand kids, and great grandchildren. I think she would have done anything for them. She was the kind of person that would have helped anyone. She loved her husband Charlie and they were both hard workers. She was a genuinely good person! She'll be missed and always remembered.

“ I have always thought Rosie was the sweetest person. Very kind to everyone. Very giving. When my kids were little they always liked to play with her doggie. She always gave us some free produce at her produce stand. Sometimes sat together at church when she came to SRC. Heaven gained an awesome person! Can't wait to see her in eternity!
