“ Ruby was always known as "Ruth and Ruby" to my sisters and I. They took us to Church and introduced us to Christ. They even both wore a bandade on the same place so their one mole wasnt shown, and they could play eachother as true identical twin. They handmade us Easter dresses. When their brother, my Papaw, was dying in Hospice, they sat on each side of me and brought me coffee and hot chocolate all night and told me funny stories of "Bud", my Papaw. Ruby was a true gem in this World, and will always be remembered and loved. -Cassi
