You were my only living uncle, since I 7 or 8. My heart is heavy. I kniw you were in pain, and unhappy in the final years, but what you leave behind is whats hard. What we as a family and the world lose in your absent. I hope that the world cab soneday learn to live as selflessly, as you did. I hope it learns to live as you did. I love Uncle Russ. Be ar peace in Gods Kingdom. Tell my family there I love them, abd wait for the day I am reunited. Thank you for loving us, taking care of us (in MANY WAYS). Thank you for the help I may have needed, ni matter what it was, the investment you made in me, and my education. I love you, I know what you expect of me.

Russ, more Mayfield brothers than just friends. You made us laugh-- and the craziness of the world a little bit more bearable. Now you can finally be at peace. Rest well, beloved friend.
