I can't hardly remember when Ruth wasn't in my life, And now I can't make my self picture life with out her true and dedicated friendship. For 50+ years we were, not only family, but also neighbors, and always dear friends. As there were times we would go long periods apart, we would pick up right were we had left off. This is the kind of friend ship that has no end, only ever lasting devotion. One could never have a dearer friend than Ruth has always been to me. I Love You Ruth, and Will Miss You Always; R.I.P. Dear Sweet Friend. My Deepest Sympathy and Condolences To Vernon Sr., Lisa, Jr., Janice, and all Ruth's family, Loved Ones, and friends

“ I will always treasure my time spent with Ruth. She was a great teacher when she trained me at Tim Hogan's Carpet store. I always enjoyed the time spent at her house writing out in long hand (no computers) the trial balances- it was a lot of work but she made it seem fun. No matter how much work we had to do I never saw her get discouraged- she was always smiling.
I remember our shared love of music- conversations about Kenny Rogers concerts and Vince Gill music.
" Go Rest High On That Mountain" Ruth- I will miss your friendship

“ My sincere sympathy to Ruth's family... I have some great memories of "cruising" Germantown with Ruth and her classmates. The laughter flowed.

“ My first memories of Ruthie were of playing with her and Anna Mae when we were 2-4 years old and I lived across the street in the duplex of Ira Zimmermans' house on S. Plum St. When we were told we couldn't cross the street, we would sit on the curb and visit. Later her mother was a 4-H leader and we built a fireplace in their backyard. One of the things I remember was taking biscuit dough, wrapping it around a stick, toasting it over the coals and then filling the center with butter and jelly. What fun times we had growing up.
