“ I just learned of Sharon's passing. I remembered it was her birthday and I wanted to reach out to her. Sharon and I worked together at Miami Paper and became good friends. Shamefully we let our relationship fade when we were working at different places. I loved her and truly hate to see she's gone. She had a good sense of humor. We played on the mill softball team, even took a couple of day trips, and I miss her so.
