“ My fondest memories of this wonderful lady were growing up. I spent every summer and almost every weekend with her as she filled the shoes as my second mother, as she has done for so many people. Everything she did in her life was with conviction and compassion. She loved deeply and fully. Life takes us on different paths and separates us physically by miles or heaven and earth, but our hearts remain unchanged. I will love you all the days of my life.

“ What a wonderful mother, wife, daughter, sister, grandmother, cousin, aunt, friend and lover of Her Lord and savior, Jesus Christ. She truly is a testament to faith, devotion and love to everyone she crossed paths with in this lifetime. We will miss her dearly and life will never be the same while here on earth.

What I love most about my Aunt Sheila was how she loved. She loves with her complete soul. Gave everything she was to those she called family and friends and wouldn't have had it any other way. She was a second mother to many, many people and taught us all what an amazing mother should be. My heart aches for everyone grieving her now... what a beautiful person she was and always will be.
