“ This is my mother and I miss her dearly. A memory I definitely have is she would always have my back with no questions. Losing both of my parents to cancer has been hard I just hope that she was reunited with all her lost loved ones and there's no stress or pain. My mom was a strong woman she taught me to always stand up for myself. Don't let people disrespect you . Mom I love you and miss you see you again one day
