“ I met one of the best people ever 10 yrs ago,she was my new neighbor and it was Shirley.I had an 18 month old daughter(alexis) that would walk or crawl through her yard to get to Shirleys swing and would just giggle and swing.Since that very moment not only myself and daughter but also my son(dylan)have loved and considered Shirley and Jack part of our family as they did us.I am very honored that she considered me her sister and so lucky to have known her my and loved her for so long.We have had so many good times between spending all holidays together,many cookouts,trips to bingo and all the stuff sisters do.I thank the lord that I was priviliged to be with her through illnesses including the cancer she had and many happy days too.Don't even get me started on how my kids felt for her and how she spoiled them all she could,even at the end her favorite grandson(as she called him)the only person who could get her to eat.She was so strong and such a fighter plus that stubbornness that kept her going.God truly took the best when he took her.

Your loving sister Jessica Gillespie
