“ She was a nice woman who gave her love to people who did not love her in return. May Shirley rest in peace and maybe now she can be appreciated for all that she did. Peace, love and healing to all who truly loved and cared about her.

I completely agree, for someone that used her for money called CPS on her to make her life a living hell. I know for a fact of who is who and what is what. I know the entire truth and I am ready any given day to provide what my thoughts and what Shirley has told me personally. You never shown any kind of true love to that woman while she was alive, Shirley's true family certainly don't want it now.

“ I want to say that I almost feel bad for Shirley, I'm glad that she is now in peace and does not have to deal with her piece of shit family. I can't tell you how many times she sat with me and spoke of so much disappointment towards her own son and his family along with her grandson as well. She would be ashamed of every last one of her family members that are acting like little school girls, causing drama. May she rest in peace and the majority of her family rest in hell.

I completely agree... Anytime the Grandson's punk ass wants to throw hands, I'm ready...
